

I would like you to know how much I appreciate satellite radio. The regular stations have gotten tired and redundant. I have been listening to old time radio on Xm and love it. Where would you get that on regular radio. Personally, I would like to hear radical right and left political shows that are planned for satellite. I urge you to reject the NAB's petition 04-160 and to support the variety of satellite radio.